BRAND'S LAIRA, COONAWARRA, AUSTRALIA hawksheadwines.co.uk

Located in South Australia's Coonawarra, famous for its unique 'Terra Rossa' soil, Brand's Laira is one of the area's most iconic and respected wineries which continues to receive numerous accolades for their wines every year - in particular from James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion, who has also given the estate a 5 Red Star rating (his highest accolade). 'The Laira' is a stunning modern range of wines that are full of freshness and fruit character.

The legend of the Brand's Laira vineyard dates back to 1893 when Captain Henry Stentiford, an English retired sea captain, purchased a 28 hectare plot of land in Coonawarra, naming it after his much-loved ship "Laira", an old square rigged ship trading around the coasts of Australia and New Zealand at the time. The vineyard was acquired by Eric Brand and his wife Nancy in 1950. When the winery was officially established in 1966 (becoming one of the first small wineries in Coonawarra), Eric renamed it "Brand's Laira".

We think these wines offer exceptional quality and value for money, with an uncompromising concentration of fruit, freshness and balance. Deliciously ripe fruit dominates the nose, complemented by spicy chocolate notes. The palate is full of rich blackberry, blackcurrant, mulberry and nutmeg oak flavours with a lingering chocolate note on the finish. The fruit is underpinned by supple tannins, which give a classical framework and weight to the palate. Pair with roasted shoulder of lamb with a spicy rub. Drinking beautifully now, enjoy until 2020.

This wine is showing excellent length with supple dark plum fruit flavours and a dense, rich fruit core knitted to silky smooth tannins. Background oak provides balance and aids the ability to age in the bottle, enjoy now until 2020+. Pair with rich stews such as ox cheek.

SL46659 Brand's Laira 'The Laira' Chardonnay 2012, Coonawarra 14.5% £11.95 Now just £9.95 — Save £2

A rich perfumed nose of creamy white peach and stone fruit aromas backed by the aromatic nuances from the French oak. This fruit driven wine is complex and silky smooth with a fine balanced structure. Fresh white peach is accompanied by a creamy cashew nut character from barrel maturation, which also adds a rounded texture in the mouth. Best appreciated over the next year or so to enjoy the vibrant fruit flavours. Pair with a lightly spiced papaya curry with coconut rice.
