HAWKSHEAD WINES

DOMAINE GAYDA, PAYS D'OC, FRANCE

hawksheadwines.co.uk

Situated in the foothills of the Pyrenees, 25km south west of Carcassone, Domaine Gayda is a fully organic vineyard with a passion for the traditional 'cépages' of the Languedoc. Upon discovering these wines we were attracted by their clean, precise fruit, subtle nuance and open appeal. They offer superb value and speak of the region they are from. We are offering these wines initially as a one-off parcel, so don't miss out!

Founded as a vineyard in 2001, a purpose built winery was completed in time for the 2004 vintage. Owned by Tim Ford (An Englishman whose father owned a vineyard in South East England) and Anthony Record (A South African entrepreneur), the wines are made by talented winemaker Vincent Chansault, formerly of esteemed South African winery Boekenhoutskloof.

Whilst equipped with all the latest technology their approach to winemaking is very traditional. All the grapes are handpicked and all operations are done by hand. Every batch is vinified separately to let them express their individual character and each process is monitored by feel and taste; not by computer.

SL48314 Dom. Gayda Syrah 2014, Pays d'Oc 13% 10.95

Jancis Robinson scored the wine 17/20, commenting: 'Vincent Chansault (the winemaker) is a big fan of the Rhône. Very good structure. Cool and sleek and very polished. Very, very fresh. Very un-Languedoc!' Enjoy now until 2020. Pair with cassoulet.
