SL47246 Mastri Vernacoli Sauvignon Blanc 2015, Trentino, Italy 13% £7.95

A refreshing and incisive Sauvignon from the cool hillside vineyards of Trentino. Aromas of lime and green apple lead on to a fresh, mineral-tinged palate with grapefruit and zesty citrus fruit characters. Pair with white fish, white meats and pasta salads. Drink now until 2018.

SL46854 Alto Los Romeros Roussanne/Marsanne 2014, Colchagua Valley, Chile 13.5% £9.95

The Rhone varietals of Marsanne and Roussane have found a new home in the mediterranean climate of Colchagua Valley, Chile. Deep golden yellow in colour. Ripe and appealing aromas of peach preserves, ripe pineapple, honey, mandarin and a hint of floral from the marsanne, delight the nose. On the palate it is rich and textured with a refreshing acidity, leading to a juicy and long finish. Enjoy with a mildly spicy tagine. Drink now until 2017+.

SL47259 Para Dos Sauvignon Blanc Torrontes 2015, Mendoza, Argentina 13% £6.95

Following the success of the Para Dos Malbec we are excited to introduce the Para Dos Sauvignon Blanc Torrontes. This wine is sourced from high altitude vineyards in Valle de Uco, Mendoza. An aromatic nose of green fruits leads to crisp and fruit driven palate with notes of gooseberry, green melon, white peach and grapefruit. The wine is gently off dry, making it an easy-drinking wine by the glass or a great partner to spicy Asian cuisine. Drink now until 2017+.

SL47212 Chateau Moulin de Mallet 2014, Bordeaux, France 12.5% £8.95

Family run since 1898, Chateau Moulin de Mallet is situated high up on the plateau de Pujols, a rocky outcrop overlooking the Dordogne Valley and facing the slopes of Saint Emilion. A blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc, this claret can be enjoyed now but will age for a few more years. An expressive nose, redolent of blackcurrant and cherry. A ripe and rounded palate with plenty of finesse. Very fruit forward with silky tannins. Enjoy with red meats or blue cheeses.

SL47239 Chateau Pinenc 2013, Minervois, France 12.5% £8.95

Located due east of the Medieval town of Carcassonne, Château Pinenc is situated on limestone-clay terraces at the heart of Minervois. Here its vines flourish amid pines, rosemary and juniper. A blend of 65% Syrah, 20% Carignan and 15% old Grenache; the wine reveals a bouquet of blackberry and spice with fresh eucalyptus notes. The palate is soft and supple with a red berry profile. Enjoy with charcuterie or chargrilled sausages. Drink now until 2018.

SL46848 Alto Los Romeros Carignan 2013, Maule Valley, Chile 14.5% £9.95

This is a modern, approachable and charming Carignan. On the nose warm spices harmonise with violets, black cherry and blueberry. Chocolate and cedar notes from 12 months ageing in French oak add an extra dimension to the ripe and juicy palate. The finish is fresh and persistent. Enjoy with dark poultry meats or manchego cheese. Drink now until 2018.
