PROVENÇAL ROSÉ

Rosé really comes into its own in the summer months and none more so than the elegant rosé wines from Provence in the sun-soaked south of France. Provence enjoys over 3,000 hours of sunshine a year and the Mediterranean climate is cooled by the sea breezes and sheltered from the extremes of the Mistral wind by rolling hills.

Thirteen different varieties are permitted in Provence but Grenache, Carignan, Syrah and Cinsault are the most widely planted. The hilly landscape provides different soils and sites, allowing each grape variety to ripen fully in its ideal terroir.

Provence rosés are wonderfully crisp and fresh, with delicate summer fruit and red berry notes. Perfect as aperitifs, these are also extremely food-friendly and delicious served with Mediterranean dishes such as Salad Niçoise, crudités and aïoli, charcuterie or soft cheeses.

We have chosen three of our favourite rosé wines from across the region and are offering discounts of up to £2 per bottle. Even better, try them all with our six-bottle sampler case and receive free delivery as part of a twelve-bottle order.

'Diamarine' Rosé 2014,

Côteaux Varois 12.5%

Usually £8.49 – Now just £7.49

The Côteaux Varois appellation of Provence is sheltered from the intense Mediterranean heat by the Sainte-Baume Mountains.

This is a classic pale pink Provence rosé made following the Saignée technique. Free-run juice from crushed dark-skinned grapes results in a delicate style of rosé. Made from equal proportions of Cinsault and Grenache grapes, this refreshing dry rosé is delightfully crisp with aromas of apricot, peach and raspberry. Fresh on the palate with subtle summer berry notes and a hint of rhubarb on the finish. Great value!

Enjoy now through to the end of 2016.

Food match: Perfect paired with pesto and pasta, chicken and avocado salad or tomato, mozzarella and basil salad.

Ravoire et Fils

'Cuvée des Lices' Rosé 2014,

Côtes de Provence 12.5%

Usually £9.99 – Now just £8.99

The red clay soils at the foot of the Luberon Massif provide the ideal growing conditions for the Grenache (60%), Cinsault (35%) and Syrah (5%) grapes that are blended to make this rosé.

From late-harvested old vines on the Ravoire et Fils estate, the resulting wine has more concentrated berry flavours and a little more body and texture than many Provence rosés, while retaining freshness and finesse.

Bright, crisp and refreshing in keeping with the Provençal style. Initial red berry aromas are followed by succulent strawberry, peach and pear flavours, balanced by fresh acidity. Enjoy now to 2017.

Food match: This is delicious with fresh crab, gazpacho or roast chicken with lemon and herb couscous.

La Baie des Pointus

Rosé 2013,

Bandol 13%

Usually £13.95 – Now just £11.95

La Baie des Pointus takes its name from the fishing boats in the picturesque Bandol bay.

The hill top vineyards are above the village and extremely labour intensive – they are all hand harvested and among the lowest yielding in France! The exceptional rosés are a blend of Mourvèdre, Grenache and Cinsault, producing wines which are riper, fuller and longer-lived than their fellow Provençal styles.

Floral notes of white flowers open on the nose with a hint of spice. Full, fresh and vibrant on the palate, raspberry and strawberry fruits combine with a savoury, mineral streak and a hint of thyme and Provençal herbs. Enjoy now to 2018.

Food match: This is an ideal accompaniment to fish (especially sole) or melon and Parma ham.
